“ As I read through Jennifer's obituary, a loving comfort came over me. Jennifer's love for the Lord is so evident and Jennifer lived this love and shared this love with us all. She has an amazing strength that, in her faith, came from the Lord. I pray Jennifer's family, friends, and the precious children who loved her will be able to find comfort in the truth that the Lord will restore their strength to move forward during this difficult time. Although Jennifer's smile in this picture is so beautiful, I can only imagine how amazing her smile was when she heard the words, "Well done good and faithful servant..." I love you all, Barbie

“ Much love to Jennifer's family today and always. I love you all deeply, and pray that sweet peace will comfort you every time your heart aches for her loss. She fought a good fight; she finished the race; she kept the faith. Now, she has received her crown! It's awesome to picture her free of her earthly body and celebrating in heaven! Jennifer's quick humor, sweet spirit, and loving demeanor made her such a joy to know and love! She will be in our hearts forever.
