“ My parents, Bruce and Lois Adams, were good friends with Sherman and Darcus. I grew up with Jerry, who was eight years older than me. He always had patience with me as a kid, even when he was a teenager himself. He gave me rides in his new Road Runner. I lost track of Jerry after he grew up, but I'll never forget him. My condolences to his family, as he was taken far too young. But Jerry was the absolute pride of Sherman and Darcus, and he took care of them until the end. Nobody was ever loved more than Jerry.

“ Saddened to hear of Jerry's death. I met him a few years back when I was home visiting my mother Anna Graham and dad Bill Graham. He was a good neighbor to them and offered assistance in their time of need. With deepest sympathy as you grieve your loss. Cathy A. Haralson Blegg
