

Jerry Harlan Knox

January 5, 1936 - March 8, 2008

JERRY HARLAN KNOX

Jerry Harlan Knox entered into heaven Saturday night March 8, 2008.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Vicki Knox; his son, Chris Knox; and devoted daughter, Debby Ward, and her husband, Peter; his brother, Jack Knox; two nephews, Jeff and Scot Knox; and two grandchildren, Matthew and Vanessa Knox.

He was born Jan. 5, 1936, in Des Moines, Iowa. He married Vicki Aug. 13, 1955. Eventually he moved his family to Fremont, Calif., to raise their children and make a living. He was an honest, well-respected man in his community. His family moved to Fair Play in June 2003. He loved living here and met many wonderful people who became his dear friends. He was an electrician by trade but there wasn't anything he couldn't do. He was an awesome furniture maker, which he did as a hobby. He joined the Elks Lodge in 2004 and became very involved. Upon his untimely exit, he was the Bingo chairman, a position he dearly loved. He will be missed dearly and by many. We will miss you but you will be forever in our hearts.

A memorial viewing and service will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 12, at Butler Funeral Home Chapel of Bolivar with Rev. Art Harmon and the Officers of the Bolivar Elks Lodge #2828 officiating. A potluck meal will be held at the Elks Lodge immediately following visitation and services

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association % of Butler Funeral Home, P.O. Box 11, Bolivar, MO 65613.
