“ My heart felt and deepest condolences to the Lemmon family. It is at a time such as this that one reflects on how important the people you have known affect who you are and become. I remember how he cared passionately for his family and friends, always making sure they knew he was there for them. Jerry enjoyed all that life offered and did his best to show those around him how to have fun and live life to the fullest trying never to take anything for granted. His loss will be greatly felt to all that knew him.

“ Jerry is a friend and a wonderful person, I just can't say was as yet. I have lots of terrific memories of all our school years and graduation. We talked and laughed many times about how thrilled and scared we were to now be parents while we waited to pick up our boys. He is also a friend to Rex, we were both stunned to hear of his passing. Our thoughts and prayers to you, the kids and the rest of the family. Rex, Ann and Ryan
