

Jim Gulick

October 24, 1941 - December 6, 2017

James "Jim" Gulick, 76, of Bolivar, Missouri passed away on Wednesday, December 6, 2017. Jim claimed Bolivar as his hometown after marrying Cecilia "CeCe" Ybarra on June 17, 1989. Jim was a member of Wellspring Baptist Fellowship. He, along with his wife, owned and operated The Berry Patch in Bolivar and he was a founding leader of the Missouri Farmers Markets. Jim and CeCe have volunteered countless hours in various community programs, most recently Community Outreach Ministries (COM).

He is survived by his wife Cece of the home and eight children and their spouses: Karen and Missy Lowery of Springfield, Kim and Joe Orr of Ozark, David Gulick of Mt. Vernon, Carolyn and Chuck Hagel of Miller, Doug & Sherri Gulick of Mt. Vernon, Mike & Julie Gulick of Miller, Michael Martin of California, and Chuck and Jamie Martin of Bolivar. He is also survived by one sister and her husband, Sharon and Jack West, and four brothers and their wives: Bob and Theresa Gulick, Don and Veda Gulick, Steve and Debbie Gulick, and Charles and Lori Gulick. Jim also had fourteen grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, and so many others who considered him family.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin and Norma Gulick, one brother, Gary Gulick, and one sister, Mary Ann Davisson.

In lieu of flowers, please make monetary contributions in Jim's name to Community Outreach Ministries (COM) in Bolivar.

Visitation Services for Mr. Gulick will be Sunday, December 10, 2017 from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. with service to follow at 3:00 PM at Wellsprings Baptist Fellowship, Bolivar, Missouri.

“ Jim was such a great guy... I met him at C.O.M. and he was always so friendly and helpful...

May God bless Ce Ce and the family daily...

I understand the loss of a family member at this season; but God knows best and He will comfort us as only He can..

BLESS YOU..

LOVE,

Granny P. <3
