“ I remember Jimmie and family coming to Eagletown to visit. Haven't seen any of them in years but have thought of them often. When i was expecting my first child 40 years ago Jimmie sent me ceramic praying pictures of a little boy and girl. Used with my children and now hanging in bedroom for our precious granddaughter. I know my mom had a big smile when she her Jimmie name announced in heaven. Prayers for the family. Donna Dickerson Huckaby

“ Bob, Cliff, Jerry, Gary, Karen, Rodney and all your families; today the Heavens are rejoicing at Jimmie’s arrival back home, while those who loved her, and you couldn’t help but love her, mourn our loss. Mambo was such a character with such a big heart, and not one to keep her thoughts to herself. She was pretty, funny, lovable, with a heart of gold, and she treated everyone the way she wanted to be treated. A true friend and loving wife, mother and grandmother, and one of the richest people I ever knew. May God hold each of you close in his arms, and give you peace and comfort in your deepest, darkest times. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you.
