“ Im so sorry Ruth to hear about John. When I came back to MO and Judy had the reunion for us, John asked me if I went to a church out here. I told him I hadnt found one we felt comfortable with yet and he offered to help me. I thought that was so kind that he would go to the trouble. Im glad I got to meet him and

“ My love and prayers go out to you, Ruth and the whole family. John was so kind to me when I was going through such a hard time so many years ago. I will never forget all the love I have received from your family over all these years.

“ A friend called me today with the news of John's passing into the very presence of God. Immediately my mind raced with memories of his impact and imprint on my life...all endearing memories. Only heaven will reveal the full impact of his Christ-honoring life. Our deepest sympathies are extended to all the family. We know you ache for the loss of John's earthly presence, but rejoice that he is in the tender eternal embrace of Christ. Grace, Love and Peace,

“ Robbi, Sorry to hear about your Dad's death, but he is in a better place now and jumping with joy. It's hard losing a loved one but it makes it a whole lot easier when you know they are going to be with the Lord. Me and Peggy are praying for you and your family in this difficult time, we are also praying for traveling safety on your trip back home. Love you all. Bob & Peggy

“ Though it has been over 25 years since I last saw and spoke with Mr. Pursselley, I remember him well as one the most humane, thoughtful and accomplished pastors I have ever known. I am saddened at his passing, but I know all of us are happy in the knowledte that he is with his Lord. My condolences to all the family.

“ We are both so very sorry to hear that you've lost John. I know he's in Heaven praising His Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. God healed him the second he hit Heaven's door. He was one of the sweetest and nicest men we have ever had the pleasure of knowing, even for a short time.

“ You can certainly treasure your good memories of Brother Pursselley, because he was an exceptionally good and faithful man. I appreciate his leading me to the Lord in Wasco, and his friendship. You'll find, as I did after losing Mom in October, that memories of a life well invested are extremely comforting, and heaven becomes more real than ever before. Love you all.
