

John H. Thornton

August 27, 1917 - January 19, 2011

John H. Thornton Sr, 93, of Weaubleau, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 19, 2011, at Truman Lake Manor, Lowry City. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Thornton in 2008. John Thornton Sr. is a WWII Veteran and POW of the European Campaign receiving the coveted Purple Heart for injuries received. He will be remembered in Weaubleau as an avid supporter and contributor of the Veterans Memorial Park. John had a distinguished career in automobile sales and eventually achieved his dream of owning his own dealership, Thornton Dodge City, located in Greenville, IL. He is survived by sons John Thornton, Jr, Ronald Thornton, Donald Thornton, daughter Andrea Thornton Bowman, and grandson John Lenington. John lived his life in a constant state of reality with his favorite saying of That was then, and this is now . No services are planned at this time. Cremation is under the direction of Murray Funeral Home, Humansville.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ John H. Thornton

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ John H. Thornton

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ He was a great man who had a great life. You will be remembered. Our thoughts for you is that your family find peace in your memory as these coming days will be the hardest for all.

Ron & Linda Wudener - February 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ My love is with you dad.

Andrea Thornton Bowman - January 20, 2011 at 12:00 AM