

Jordan Kneeland Farr

May 12, 1994 - April 14, 2012

Jordan Kneeland Farr, born May 12, 1994, just 17, was fierce, quiet, stubborn, competitive, passionate, determined, fighting to be first and the best always with a quirky sense of humor. He had an invincible exterior, but nobody was fooled. He was a quiet storm, a vicious tempest at times, but a heart full of spontaneous love. Even though he was the biggest antagonist, he rooted for every underdog and was a protector at heart. He was a friend to everyone. As a son he broke our hearts and then filled them with joy. As a brother, he laughed with you or laughed at you. But was always ready to fight for his family, or go out on a new adventure with them. He was so much more than a brother; he was our friend. As an uncle, he had immense pride and responsibility over his little nephews and nieces, he was their best playmate and gentle protector. He strove to outdo the rest in every way. This made him an exceptional football player and wrestler; a natural athlete honed through years of brotherly instruction. His coach aptly said, Jordan had a great shot as a wrestler and in life, and he usually shot straight to the heart!

He won the final race: he beat us all to Heaven. Our pain is overwhelming, but by faith our hope is greater. We rejoice in Jordans victory in Christ and the prize of Heaven, even though we mourn the great hole that he left in many hearts.

He is survived by his parents, nine brothers, two sisters, five sibling in laws, nine nephews and two nieces, his maternal grandparents and his paternal grandperents and countless uncles, aunts and cousins. We rest completely in Gods incomprehensible grace and sovereignty, trusting His heart for those of us left behind.

Memorial Services for Jordan will be held on Wednesday, April 18, 2012 at 2:00 PM in the Pike Auditorium (Maybee Chapel) at Southwest Baptist University under the care and direction of the Butler Funeral Home of Bolivar

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the Butler Funeral Home, P.O. Box 11, Bolivar, MO 65613. Donations will be split between the SBU Global Connections Missions and the Bolivar Highschool Wrestling Team.

Friends may sign the guest book or send private condolences at www.butlerfuneralhome.com.

“ To the family of Jordan Farr,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) While grief at the loss of Jordan is great, joy at receiving Jordan back in the resurection will be greater. (Mark 5:42) With deepest sympathy,
