

Juanita Leith

October 1, 1930 - December 18, 2020

Juanita G. Leith, age 90, of Bolivar, MO succumbed to complications from COVID-19 on Dec. 18, 2020 in Kansas City, MO.

She was born Oct. 1, 1930 in Dunnegan, MO to parents, Jacob B. Koehn and Mary E. (Campbell) Koehn.

Juanita met her husband, George, in Bolivar following the end of WWII. They married in 1947 and raised three children. George's job with Boeing involved frequent moves resulting in living in over 40 homes in their 46 years of marriage. She will be remembered as a devoted wife and Mother and for her fantastic sense of humor and her love for practical jokes.

Juanita was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; a brother, Paul; and two sisters, Beatrice and Pauline. She is survived by her three children, Albert of Kansas City, MO; Teresa Baird of Joplin, MO; Phyllis Wilson of Austin, TX. ; four grandsons and four great grandsons.

A memorial service for Juanita will be held at 1:00 PM Saturday, June 26, 2021, at Eudora Baptist Church with Dan Leith officiating.

“ *My dearest Mom.
I am so sad today. I love you so dearly and I will miss you. I will keep all my warmest memories of you close to my heart. The only good news is that your suffering is over. I am so thankful for all the healthcare workers that dedicated themselves to make you comfortable. Covid-19 has claimed too many wonderful people and ruined so many people's lives. Our family is only one of them.*
