

Judith Spear

July 10, 1939 - August 9, 2015

Judith Spear age 76, of Pleasant Hope, passed away on Sunday evening, August 9, 2015. Judith was born on July 10th, 1939 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

She moved to Pleasant Hope, MO with her family in 1974. Judith served in the U.S. Navy and is survived by her husband Joe of 57 years.

Judith has one son, Joseph (Joey) Spear and his wife Karen of Poulsbo, WA. And one daughter, Jeanne' Losurdo and her husband John of Pleasant Hope, MO. Judith also has three grandsons, Paul Ackels, of Pleasant Hope, Joseph Anthony Spear of Seattle, WA, and Tyler Colin Spear of Poulsbo, WA. Also one granddaughter Stephanie Ackels Douth and her Husband Aaron of Fort Irwin, CA. Judith has five great grandchildren, Clarissa Ackels of Bolivar, Mo. Oliver Ackels of Pleasant Hope, Olivia Ackels of Fair Grove, MO. Kaitlyn Douth and Elijah Douth of Fort Irwin, CA. Judith has one sisters Janice Asbury of Lebanon, Indiana and one brother-in-law Kenneth Sklka of Indianapolis, IN. Judith is also survived by her "adopted daughter" Jeanette Jacobson of Bolivar, MO

Judith is preceded in death by her parents Alvin and Kathryn Colter and two sisters Jean Colter and Joyce Skalka and two brother Jack Colter, James Colter and a brother in law Charles Asbury. Judith is survived by many nieces, nephews and a host of many relatives and dear friends whom she loved very much.

Judith was saved in December of 1985 on Pennsylvania Highway. Before her passing she told her great grandchildren that she was going to go to sleep and be with Jesus and to make preparation for themselves. Judith will be sadly missed by all the dear little children she had in her life but if you look above the stars, that is where Grammer is. Her greatest saying was her easiest day was yesterday.

“ Joe, Joseph, Jeanne' and families, please except condolences from my family to you. Judy was a wonderful woman, and someone I looked up to and loved talking to. Her love of children was so special, and she always treated my children with such affection. While this is a time of great sorrow for all of you, I pray that God wraps you in his loving and caring arms and gives you the strength you need and peace. Goodbye Ms. Judy, you were loved much on this earth
