

Judy Wass

November 15, 2016

Judy Wass, 66, passed away suddenly on Tuesday November 15, 2016. She was born December 24, 1949 in Greeley, Colorado, the daughter of Johnnie and Christine (Davis) Aab.

Judy was employed with Prudential in Phoenix, Arizona from 1973 – 1991 when she left to raise her family in Missouri. She spent the next two decades working and raising her family until she retired in 2013.

After her retirement she enjoyed traveling with her brother and sister, spoiling her grandson, and spending time with her daughters. Judy loved to craft, and she was particularly fond of cross-stitch and needle point, and liked relaxing with a good book. She also enjoyed cooking and gardening. She was always the first to come to dinner with a new recipe she wanted to try and hands down had the best 'green thumb' in the family. She will be incredibly missed.

Judy is survived by her daughters, Jennifer Wass of Bolivar, MO and Jessica Wass of Kansas City, MO, one grandchild, Rhylan Ray. Two brothers, James Aab of Denver, CO, and Steven Aab of Greeley, CO, two sisters, Susan White of Tempe, AZ and Roxann Cordova of Pueblo, CO.

A memorial service for Judy Wass will be held Saturday, November 26, 2016 at Butler Funeral in Bolivar at 10:00 AM.

“ Having just learned of Judy's passing we want to send our condolences to her family. We were pleased to know her through her children, in the Bolivar School system where my husband was a teacher. In our encounters in the community she always brought us up to date on her family. We will miss her and her smile.

“ I worked with Judy at Prudential for many years. She was a good and wonderful friend and we even lived together for a few months before she moved to Missouri. We recently reconnected through facebook and got back in touch just like we had never lost touch with each other. I made a trip to Missouri to see her and we were planning a trip for her to come to Kansas. I will miss her dearly. I know her girls meant the world to her as well as her grandson. My sincere condolences to her family and will pray for peace for all of you during this time of grief. Kathi Tullis, Towanda KS
