“ I am very sorry for the loss of your dear Mother. May family and friends bring you each comfort along with God's Word. John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 assure us that those sleeping in death have the wonderful prospect of living again, and at a time when God will have removed all sickness, pain, and even death from the earth forever! (Rev.21:4; Psalm 37:10,11,29) May the promise of the resurrection to life on a paradise earth help to give you a sure hope and peace.

“ Anevea and family, I heard about the passing of your mom from the secretary at Westport K-8, the new school facility for Study Middle School. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. You are such a strong person that I know your family and friends will surround you with a blanket of love. I love you and hold you in high regard.
