

Kay Hogan

December 3, 1945 - March 28, 2008

Mrs. Kay Hogan, 62, Humansville, died Friday, March 28, 2008. The daughter of Arlo and Zora (Meinert) Rockney, she was born December 3, 1945 at Downey, CA. Kay and John Hogan were married February 5, 1966. They resided on a farm southeast of Humansville since 1991. She was a member of Harvest Fellowship in Humansville, a homemaker and a retired registered medical assistant instructor. Survivors include her husband, John, of the home; her parents, Arlo and Zora Rockney, Lynnwood, WA; 3 children, Terry Hogan and wife, Sylvia, Gardner, KS, John Hogan and wife, Karissa, Humansville and Chris Hoskins, Humansville; 9 grandchildren; and 2 brothers, Terry Rockney and Dean Rockney, both of the state of Washington. Funeral services will be Tuesday, April 1, 2008 at Murray Funeral Home, Humansville, with Rev. Kerry Skidmore officiating. Interment will be in Flemington Cemetery. Visitation will be Monday from 6:00 to 7:00 PM.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Kay Hogan

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Kay Hogan

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ John, we were so sorry to read of Kay's death. We did not know her but we remember school days with you and although we have lived a lifetime since then we wanted to share our sympathies with you and your family.

KB & ANITA YOUNGBLOOD - April 08, 2008 at 12:00 AM