

Kenneth Youngblood

July 27, 1920 - October 30, 2013

Kenneth Youngblood, 93, of Lees Summit, Missouri passed away Wednesday, October 30 at John Knox Village Hospice in Lees Summit. He was the middle of 3 sons born to Fred and Ethel Youngblood in Armica, Missouri. Ken was a high school graduate and a US Army veteran. He and Pollyanna were married January 22, 1943 and she preceded him in death January 10, 2008. During Ken's working career he was both employee and business owner. He owned Youngblood's Hardware and Coin-o-Matic Laundry in Humansville. He was valued for his work ethic, dependability and integrity. He was well liked by those he served, especially while working for Midwest Management where he retired at the age of 73. He was a member of Lees Summit United Methodist Church and faithfully attended services until he could no longer drive. The visits from Pastors Pat and Rich and the CD's they brought of sermons were always appreciated. Ken loved his family and was completely devoted to his wife Polly and cared for her until her death. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife Polly; and brothers Stanley and Don Youngblood. He is survived by his only son KB Youngblood and his wife Anita; granddaughters Angela McClary and her husband Rodger and Alisa Hopper and her husband Tim; great grandchildren Blake, Katlin and Joshua McClary and Manda and Austin Hopper; nephews Kent Youngblood and his wife Sandy and their daughters Jessie and Katie, Rick Coble and Randy Coble and their families; sister-in-law Florence Youngblood. Funeral services for Ken Youngblood will be held 2 PM Saturday, November 2, 2013 at Murray Funeral Home in Humansville officiated by Rev. Pat Kelley. Burial will immediately follow at the Humansville Cemetery with full military honors. Visitation will be held from 1-2 PM on Saturday prior to the service. Memorials are suggested to the Lees Summit United Methodist Church, 114 SE Douglas St., Lees Summit, MO 64063. Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
