

Leo L. Davis

June 24, 1922 - February 4, 2009

Leo Lawrence Davis passed away on February 4, 2009 in Bolivar, Missouri. He was born on June 24th, 1922 to Cook and Effie Davis in Dadeville Missouri. He attended school in Dadeville and lived most of his life in southwest Missouri. He worked in manufacturing until his retirement. Leo made his decision to follow Jesus in his 20s and exhibited true Christian virtues of honesty, gentleness, kindness, generosity and love throughout his life. Leo was a lover of nature. He was an avid hunter and fisherman as well as an excellent gardener. Challenged by a hunting accident that left his left arm disfigured at age 12, he was never disabled. He continued to enjoy outdoor sports and worked in manufacturing. He was never married, but became an integral part of a large family. He instilled a love of the outdoors in his nephews and nieces who were his constant companions on fishing and hunting outings. He endeared himself to his entire expanded family and many others with his friendly personality, humorous nature and kind gentle spirit. He was affectionately known to many as Unkie . He will truly be missed and always remembered. He is survived by his sister, Faye Glover of Bolivar, 2 nephews, Albert Glover of Dothan, AL, and David Glover of Warrensburg, MO, 2 grand nieces, Kristy Glover-Sooter of Springfield, MO, and Angela Glover of Dothan, AL, 6 grand nephews, Sonny Glover of Joplin, MO, Justin Glover of San Francisco, CA, Cook Glover of Houston, TX, Drew Glover, of Blue Springs, MO, Spencer Glover of Warrensburg, MO, and John Glover of Dothan, AL, 2 great grand nieces, Madeline Sooter and Olivia Sooter of Springfield, and one great grand nephew, James Glover of Houston, TX. Funeral services will be 2:00 PM Sunday, February 8, 2009 in Murray Funeral Home, Bolivar, with Rev. Billy Russell officiating. Interment will be in Dadeville Masonic Cemetery. Friends may call at their convenience in the funeral home after 9:00 AM Saturday. Memorial contributions may be made to CMH Hospice, 1500 N. Oakland, Bolivar, MO 65613.
