“ Dear Ed and Paula,

Paul and I are thinking of you during this difficult time. As you know we have just been through this ourselves, so we do understand the sadness and emotional feelings you are experiencing. We love you both and are here for you, if there is any way we can be of help.

Although we don't know your family, we offer our condolences to them also.

“ Ed and Paula,

Words can never replace the sorrow one feels inside at a time like this.

I wish I been able to met your mother, as I am sure she was a great women and could have told some good stories on you.

Again, I am sorry for you loss.
