“ Doris, Jesse and family. I am so saddened to hear of your loss. My sincerest sympathies to you and the family. LeSa's exuberant spirit and personality made it such a joy to spend a few minutes or hours just being with her. Her laughter was joyful and contagiagous.I will always remember her for her beautiful, sweet smile. I am certain that she is celebrating with Chuck at the feet of Jesus. May God bring your family peace and comfort in your loss. Love and hugs to all.Judi

“ Lesa and I grew up in the same small town and went to school from elementary to High school, she was so full of life and a kick to be around. I am extremely shock and saddened by her passing. You will always be remembered and dearly missed. My thoughts and prayer go out to her family & friends...

“ Chuck, when we watched you wrestle in USA Wrestling, we saw you display incredible drive and strength in impossibly tough situations. Now you are in an incredibly tougher situation. We will still be praying and cheering for you. Should you ever need a place in Bolivar, our home is open to you. We can't think words that say completely but how sorry we are about your Mom's going on ahead of you. We will pray for you and hope to get to cheer for you again, soon!
