“ It saddens me to hear about your loss! Death is something that we all can relate too and understand how much it pains our heart. I will like to reach out to you and your family and send my condolence and share something uplifting. Its found in the bible at Rev. 21:4. This a comforting scripture, for its a promise from our Heavenly Father, that soon he will end all suffering, especially death! I do hope, you find comfort in this.
