“ So many memories! We had such great fun together both with friends and at work. My parents owned the Mr. Swiss drive in and Linda, Cathy Haralson Bleggi and several others worked together. I'll never forget the time Linda was mopping the floor and hit my Mom with the mop. There might have been a little "horse play" going on among us! Linda just whirled around & walked the other way! My Mom was known as somewhat of a tyrant. But we all survived and had a good laugh about it later.

“ Linda was a kind and caring person. For years we enjoyed a weekly phone call. Often recalling the crazy times we shared working at Mr. Swiss flipping burgers. When I would come home to visit we always got together. She will be missed by all who knew her! You are in my thoughts and prayers.
