“ Lois was a loving and remarkable teacher, a person that touched the lives of many children with her tender care and loving ways. We appreciated Lois having been the teacher in the early years with our son, Jeremy. I think of her often with her sweet smile, funny stories, and positive encouragement. I will always remember Lois with her red boots and how she wore pretty jewelry and accessories encouraging the children to enjoy them. Lois was a "special" teacher and she will be missed.

“ Rest in peace, Lois. In the end, the sum of our lives is judged by what we leave behind. Each encounter I had with you was one of pleasure and fond memories, brought about from your wit and charm and intelligence. You leave a son who magnifies and augments your virtues and enriches the world with his generosity, kindness, talent, loyalty, effervescence and joie de vivre. An indelible legacy--a job well done, Lois. Peace and condolences to all. Tana Rutledge
