

Loren W. Laird

July 8, 1934 - April 22, 2021

Loren W. Laird, 86 of Bolivar, Missouri passed away Thursday, April 22nd, 2021 at the Missouri Veterans Home in Mt. Vernon after a short illness. Loren was born on July 8, 1934 to Dave and Grace Laird.

Loren was a Korean War Veteran, who loved showing slides and talking about the Atomic Cannons he worked on. He worked for MODOT for 44 years, and loved working with his hands and making anything he could dream up in his shop. He enjoyed going to the Casino every chance he got. He was always there to help anyone who needed it and loved his family dearly.

Loren was preceded in death by his wife Shirley, and his parents Dave and Grace Laird.

He leaves behind two daughters, Karen Foster, and husband Elvin, Cathy Akers and husband, Ed, three sisters, Loretta Jessup, Faye Sullivan and Connie Payne, two brothers James and Kenny Laird, two granddaughters, Hillary Talburt, and Kendra DeMoure, seven great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. He will be missed by everyone.

Visitation will be from 2:00 to 4:00 P.M. Sunday, April 25, 2021 at Butler Funeral Home, with a private service for family at a later date.

“ Karen so sorry for your loss. I only knew your dad a short time while my dad was his roommate at Mt Vernon. He always enjoyed talking to my husband about hunting. May God bless your family.

“ Loren was an amazing uncle and was always there to answer questions or just for conversation. When I was around him there was never a moment when he wouldn't take time out of his day to talk. I remember Loren as a hard working, strong minded man who never held back his feelings. I only have good memories of my uncle and he will live on in my thoughts. Rest in peace uncle Loren.
