

Lovella L Ballinger

May 16, 1931 - May 13, 2013

Lovella L Ballinger, 81, of Villa Ridge, Missouri passed away Monday, May 13, 2013 at the New Haven Care Center, New Haven, Missouri. Lovella was born at Pleasant Hope, Missouri the daughter of Robert and Nita Rowland. She and her husband Melvin moved to Humansville in 1976 coming from Grandview, Missouri. Lovella accepted Jesus into her heart at an early age in Vacation Bible School and was later baptized at the First Baptist Church of Humansville in 1996. She moved to Union, Missouri to be closer to her daughter and joined the First Baptist Church in Union. She moved into her daughters' home for her care and then to the New Haven Care Center in New Haven, Missouri. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Melvin; and son John J. Ballinger. Lovella is survived by daughter Darlene Tucker and her husband Ray of Villa Ridge, Missouri; grandsons Glen Tucker and his wife Jan of Villa Ridge, Robert Tucker and his wife Tara of Rock Hill, Missouri, Mark Tucker and his wife Jamie of St. Louis, Missouri, Brett Ballinger and his wife Lindsay of McKinney, Texas; granddaughter Nicole Crites and her husband Sean of St. Louis, Missouri; great-grandchildren Lexy, Katie, Devon, Shelby, Olivia, Brendan, Keeley, Danielle, Bryce, Brooke and Derek; sister Artie Durham of Kansas City, Kansas. We all have lots of memories and she took delight to see her great-grandchildren in her later years, they called her Grandma B. Her favorite activity was walking and in later years she enjoyed all the birds, flowers and children she saw on her walks. She is now walking the streets of gold, smiling and greeting everyone she knows. We will see her again and can rest knowing she will meet us with a big smile. Gravesite services will be held 3 PM Thursday, May 16th at the Humansville Cemetery officiated by Rev. Ron Foley under the care and direction of Murray Funeral Home. Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
