

Marcheta Henry

June 16, 1927 - August 22, 2012

J. Marcheta Henry, 85, of Weaubleau, Missouri, passed away Wednesday, August 22, 2012 at Citizens Memorial Hospital, Bolivar. She was the daughter of Jesse James and Dona Lee Barger Henry and was born in Stanton County, Kansas. Marcheta graduated from Western State College in Gunnison, Colorado with a bachelors degree in music and taught school for one year in Howard, Colorado. She later graduated with her Masters Degree in Music from Bethany College, Lindsborg, Kansas, and was proficient at playing many musical instruments. Marcheta married James Lloyd Henry on September 11, 1947 and he preceded her in death in 2002 after 54 years of marriage. Marcheta was of the Catholic faith and belonged to the St. Catherine of Siena parish at Humansville. She worked many years for Dr. Easton in Weaubleau. She was one of the first female para-medics to be licensed in the state of Missouri. She was also a mid-wife, delivering many babies in the area including her own grand-daughters. She loved ceramics and owned her own ceramic shope in Weaubleau. Marcheta was a Reiki Master and taught Reiki. She was a member of the DAR and the Magna Carta Dames. She was preceded in death by her parents, sister Annita Henry, and husband James Lloyd Henry. She is survived by sons John J. Henry and wife Ann of Humansville and J.L. Henry of Stockton; grand-daughters Rebecca Smallwood and husband Mike; Juanita Beachy and husband Paul; Janet Henry; Margaret Alba and husband Manuel; Jennifer Marie Henry and Melissa Jane Henry; and 9 great-grandchildren. A private family funeral service will take place at a later date. Arrangements have been entrusted to Murray Funeral Home, Humansville. Online condolences may be submitted to www.murrayfuneralhomes.com
