“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I had not heard about Mark's passing until this morning. I also served as a Postmaster with Mark. I spent quite a bit of time with him when he was the OIC at Rolla, learning to conduct RDSOP reviews. He will be missed.

“ To the Ayala Family: Marc and I worked together in Delivery Programs for the Mid-America District, both as Customer Service Analyst. We conducted training session all over the state of Missouri as a team. We shared lots of good times hanging out in Springfield, Cape, and Kansas City. We learned to respect our difference and to continue to be friends. Marc will be missed by many, including me. My Deepest Sympathy to the "GIRLS" as he would always refer too and his entire family.
May God continue to Bless you all.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Ayala family. I worked with Marc for many years at the Plant in Springfield. Marc was such a knowledgeable man. He would always have the answer to my questions. You will be missed Marc. I admire your spirit and your love of life and family. It was an honor to work with you.
Sincerely, Sue Smith
