

Marjorie Irene Dodd

June 27, 1922 - April 25, 2014

Marjorie Dodd, 91, of Morrisville passed away Friday, April 25, 2014 at her residence with her family at her side. She was the middle of 3 daughters born to Joe and Bertha Edwards in the Cane Hill, Missouri area. She learned to sew, crochet and knit by the age of 10 and she enjoyed that activity for the rest of her life. After graduating high school she attended Southwest Baptist College in Bolivar where she participated in softball and volleyball but not swimming as she always said she just sank to the bottom. One semester before graduation she married C.L. Dodd Jr on July 28, 1949 and they celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary last year. They were the parents of 2 sons. Marjorie began her teaching career in a one room school near Stockton. She taught in several school districts before finding her teaching home at the Marion C. Early Elementary School where she taught reading to many, many young students. After her retirement she continued to enjoy doing handwork and crafting where she participated in craft shows and maintaining her booths in the local shops. She loved being outdoors and spending time with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents; son Joe Lee Dodd; sisters Lorene Witt and Frances Pyle of Cane Hill. She is survived by her husband C. L. Dodd of the home; son Michael Dodd and his wife Kay of Walnut Grove; granddaughter Susan Buckner and her husband Steve of Pleasant Hope, grandson Nathaniel Dodd of Walnut Grove; great-grandson Austin Taylor; great-granddaughters Stephany and Mackensie Buckner; nieces, nephews and friends.Gravesite services for Marjorie Dodd will be held at 1:00 PM on Saturday, May 3rd at the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery near Aldrich, Missouri.A visitation will be held on Thursday, May 1st from 6-8 PM at Murray Funeral Home in Bolivar.Online condolences may be submitted at www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
