

Marjorie F. Potter

January 16, 1920 - December 2, 2008

Marjorie Frances Potter, 88, Weaubleau was called home to be with her Lord on December 2, 2008. She was born January 16, 1920 to Walter and Ruby (McBride) Piper near Rondo, Missouri. When she was a teenager she was saved at the Flemington Christian Church and later joined Rondo Baptist Church. Marjorie married Harold Potter April 2, 1938. One son, David Max, was born to this union. Marjorie lived her life working beside her beloved husband as they spent their lives farming in the Flemington and Rondo area. She will always be remembered for her good home cooking. No one ever left her kitchen hungry. The pride of her life was her family. She loved spending time with her grandkids and great-grandkids. Marjorie was preceded in death by her spouse in 2001, her parents, 5 brothers and 3 sisters. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Max and Kay Potter, Weaubleau; a grandson, Lawrence Potter and wife, Dennise, Weaubleau; two granddaughters, Kathy Newman and husband, Darin, Hermitage, and Roberta Fishburn and husband, John, Flemington; 8 great-grandchildren, Cody and Cole Fishburn, Aubri, Autumn and Austin Potter, Missy, Amanda and Grace Newman; and a host of nephews, nieces and friends. Graveside services will be at 2:00 PM Friday, December 5, 2008 at Flemington Cemetery with Brother Donnie Lightfoot officiating. Pallbearers will be Lawrence Potter, John Fishburn, Cody Fishburn, Cole Fishburn, Darin Newman and Gaylord Piper. Visitation will be at 1:00 PM Friday at Murray Funeral Home, Humansville.
