

Marlyn Huffstedtler

March 19, 1946 - June 10, 2013

Marlyn Huffstedtler, 67, of Bolivar passed away Monday, June 10th at the Parkview Healthcare Facility in Bolivar. She was one of 7 children born to Edward and Naomi Kates in Oxnard, California. Marlyn moved to Bolivar in 2010 to be near her sisters and brother coming here from Ventura, California where she had lived and raised her family. She had worked at the Ventura Star-Free Press for many years. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of Ventura and she was a volunteer in the community helping with Veteran's activities. She was very active in her church functions and derived her greatest pleasure from helping others and serving the Lord. As her health permitted she enjoyed water activities such as boating, camping, fishing and swimming. Marlyn was a member of the Bolivar Pentecostal Church of God. Marlyn was preceded in death by her parents, brothers Robert and Dale Kates, and a grandchild. She is survived by her husband Terry Huffstedtler of Ventura, California; sons Eric Huffstedtler and his wife Lynette of Oxnard, California and Aaron Huffstedtler of Ventura, California; daughter Terra Murphy Barton and her husband Scott of Texas; brothers Eddie Kates of Bolivar and James Kates and his wife Donna of Westminster, Colorado; sisters Ruth Herr and her husband Darren of Springfield and Pat Hayes of Bolivar; 5 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Memorial services for Marlyn Huffstedtler will be held 11:00 AM Friday, June 14, 2013 at the Bolivar Pentecostal Church of God with Pastor Harold Johnson and Pastor Norman Culbertson officiating.
