OBITUARY

MARSHALL E. NICOL

Marshall E. Nicol, age 68 of Bolivar, MO, died Friday, July 14, 2006 at 12:01 AM in Cox Medical Center South, due to complications of open heart surgery.

He was born on April 6, 1938 in Los Angeles, CA, the son of Ruth and Charles Nicol.

He attended Venice High School, and Santa Monica College. He retired as a plumber in 1996.

He and his wife loved to travel. They spent 4 years in Alaska. He was known for his love of English Bulldogs and always had one at his side.

He was a member of the Roller Pigeon Club and loved to fly model airplanes. He also loved to garden, going to garage sales and selling at Fair Play Swap Meets.

Preceding him in death were his parents and his brother, Donald Nicol of Los Angeles, CA.

He is survived by his wife Patricia, of 35 years, a brother, Bruce Nicol of Los Angeles, CA; and several nieces and nephews. He was greatly loved and will be missed very much.

His request is to be cremated with no services. Arrangements are under the direction of the Butler Funeral Home of Bolivar. Marshall's favorite charities are Children's Hospital and St. Jude's.

“ I am a member of the flying club and came to the house once to work on your computer. I will sure miss Marshall at our field. We spent many hours talking about drag racing and his pigeons.

Mike & Lynda Proffitt - July 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ We are very sorry for your loss. I was a friend of Marshall's from the Bolivar Sports Flyers. I always enjoyed my time with Marshall flying airplanes. Some times it seemed like we spent more time talking about flying than actually flying. I will miss my friend very much.
