Mary Odith Duncan, 95, of Humansville went home to be with her Savior, Thursday afternoon, August 22nd at her residence with her family at her side. She was one of 4 children born near Galmey, Missouri to Asa Roy and Nancy Edna Pitts Tinsley. Mary Odith married Russell David Duncan September 13, 1941 and they were married for 37 years before his tragic death. Her family thought she made the best peach butter. Sunday dinners with her extended family were a frequent occurrence throughout the years. Mary Odith loved to go fishing and that pastime continued into her later years as well. She loved card parties of Canasta and Rook and was a regular consumer of garage sale items.
