

Max M. Poulter

October 31, 1974 - April 27, 2012

Max Michael Poulter, age 37, of Bolivar, Missouri, died in his sleep on Friday, April 27, 2012 as the house of a couple he referred to as his godparents.

He was born on October 31, 1974 in Silvis, Illinois, the son of Michael John Poulter and Shirley Fallin Clark.

Max was a Bolivar High School Graduate with the class of 1993. He attended Central Assembly of God Church in Springfield, Missouri. Max was saved and he loved the Lord.

He was a very hard working young man willing to work at anything. If he didnt have a car, he walked.

Max had a sweet nature and a smile for everyone, he loved to make people laugh, he met no strangers. Max was always ready to help people out; he had a true heart for missions. Max was going to trade school and very happy that he was going. He was finally getting into a place of his own and he had so many hopes and dreams for his future.

He loved to go fishing and hunting. When he would go out, I told Max Son, dont come back empty handed and he never did. But guess who got to clean it; you got it, his mom!

Max was preceded in death by his two grandfathers; John Poulter and Everett Williams, grandmother; Margaret Poulter and half brother; James Jimmy Fallin III.

Max is survived by his parents Michael John Poulter and wife Barbara of Elizabeth City, North Carolina and Shirley Fallin Clark and her husband Randy of Bolivar, Missouri, two sisters; Marcelia Fairbank and husband Jeremy and their two children Aiyana and Miya of Rantoul, Illinois, and Christena Fallin and her son Elijah James Niceville, Florida, plus three step-sisters; Darlene, Belinda, and Stacy of Virginia Beach, Virginia, one grandmother; Christena Deason of Bolivar, Missouri, two uncles; Paul E. Williams of Bolivar, Missouri, and Carl E. Miner of Bolivar, Missouri, two aunts; Wilma Lea Hamp and her husband David, seven cousins; Tina, Cheryl, John, Duane, Ernie, Tom Miner and Colt Hamp, and aunt Mary Poulter Grimes Stegmiller and her husband Kenneth, four cousins; Shawn Michael Grimes and Michelle Margaret Grimes Steven, Angela Dawn Stegmiller, and Allison Darlene Stegmiller Prenevost.

A Funeral Service will be held at 2:00pm, on Thursday, May 3rd, 2012 at the First Assembly of God Church in Bolivar, Missouri, under the care and direction of the Butler Funeral Home in Bolivar, Missouri.

Visitation will be held from 6:00-7:00pm Wednesday evening at the Butler Funeral Home in Bolivar, Missouri.

Friends may sign the guestbook or leave private condolences at www.butlerfuneralhome.com

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Max M. Poulter

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Max M. Poulter

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ R.I.P Max. Lots of good memories of you, Marcy, and myself back in the day. You will be loved and missed dearly!

Bambi Stiff - May 06, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Our deepest condolences.

Beverly Matthews and Joyce Williams - May 04, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ My husband and I went to school with Max. He was a good guy. He asked a lot of questions in class, and was really friendly. My husband and I believe he made it to heaven.

Beth Richardson - May 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

GB

“ To the Family: My deepest sympathy's to you i know it not going to help. but i have loved your family like my own our familys have been friends for years your kids grew up with me and my sister and now the boys are gone. i loved max like a big brother he was always there when i need him , and always with a big smile no matter what.i will always miss him.

Gina Bays - May 01, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ Max was in my Sunday School class at Central Assembly in Springfield. The obituary was absolutely right. He always had a smile and was excited about life. He lifted our spirits. I'm glad to have known him.

Jane Powell - May 01, 2012 at 12:00 AM

NW

“ As fellow students of Max we would like to send our condolences to his family. He was a very determined student and he could always make us laugh. Today we have said a prayer for you and your family during this difficult time and we are remembering the happy times and will always know that when the sun is shining and the stars are out; Max will always be with us always watching over us. God Bless.

Nicole Meissner & Jonathon White - April 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

MH

“ I recently met Max and became his teacher about 2 months ago. He was always cheerful and I loved the idea of mentoring him at school (and I told him this). He wanted so much to make his dad proud and I told him I would help him in school so that one day his dad could see him graduate college. Instead, he has graduated to his heavenly Father and that I am sure of. Here at school, with a heavy heart, I can say he will surely be missed.

Michael Hatcher - April 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

EK

“ Dear family of Max Poulter;
I only knew Max for a few short months but I was blessed to teach a class that he was in here at ITT Springfield, MO. He was very active in class participation and always had positive things to add to the discussion. He approached me several times to get help with classwork and homework, so I had an opportunity to get to know Max, the man. I will always look up to Max and the potential that I saw in him. I am sure that everyone who had a chance to get to know Max was blessed just like I was. God bless him and his life.

Ed Kurtz - April 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM