“ Donna, our prayers are with you and yours during this time of your lost. I go back a long ways knowing Mick. We grew up together in Kansas City,Kansas As teenage kids we worked on our cars and I remember his 58 black chevy. It was a very clean and nice looking car. Looking back on my teenage years it was my pleasure to have known him as a dear friend. Heck it seems like yesterday !! Dan & Sherry Jenkins 1000 Homestead Trail Allen, TX 75002

“ Donna: Was saddened to hear of Mick's death. You are in our thoughts and prayers. I think the last time Micheal George and I talked was at my brother's funeral. Sad times. Take care. John and family.

“ Dear Donna and Family, We were so sadden to hear about Mike. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. We have such pleasant memories of him and we are blessed to have been a neighbor and friend for the years we had at Lake Pomme de Terre. We are praying for God's strength and comfort to you and the family at this time. May it help in some small way to know that others care and are praying for you. In Christian Love, Former Neighbors, Don and Shirley
