“ Michelle, it was such an honor to have you as my namesake, I am so glad that we got to visit when we did. I know that Jesus has you in his arms and you are dancing on those streets of gold, loving those vibrant colors and sounds of Heaven. You are free from pain and sorrow. You are also watching over your Mom and sisters like the angel you always were. GodSpeed Michelle until we meet again. I love you Aunt Kim

“ Boulware Family~

Words can not express or even give comfort at this precious time. All I know is, for such a time as this, Michelle was given this battle because Christ knew she could handle it and in the end, she would receive a complete healing....not a short term healing but one that is forever. She will forever be in our thoughts. I remember the first time I met little Michelle, she was a missionette at First AG along with my daughter. She was a sweet heart! Take comfort in knowing that the angels in heaven are rejoicing because Michelle has come home. Her presense there will make it that much more sweeter. Make it a point, from this day forward to make Heaven so you can once again see Michelle, whole, healed and complete..in His likeness.
