

Myron Stanley Horton

January 10, 1933 - November 24, 2006

Myron Stanley Horton, 73, of Bolivar, began his heavenly life at 7:00 am on Friday, November 24, 2006 at Colonial Springs Care Center in Buffalo, MO.

He was born on January 10, 1933 in Ainsworth, Nebraska, the son of Lyman Stanley and Agnes Edith Horton. Myron married Delcie Pendergrass on December 20, 1954, and to this union two sons were born, Stanley Ray Horton and Gregory Alan Horton.

Myron became a Christian in his teenage years and was most recently a member of the Bolivar First Assembly of God Church. He served in the United States army from 1953 to 1955 during the Korean War. He was an electronic engineer for Wilcox Electronics in Kansas City, MO and was instrumental in developing radar technology. He returned to his farming roots, purchasing a dairy farm in Bolivar, MO in 1968.

He is survived by his wife, Delcie Horton of the home, his brother Victor Horton and wife Billie of Billings, MO, his sister Vesta Walters of Florida, his son Dr. Stanley Horton and daughter-in-law Dr. Laura Horton of Madison, CT, his son Greg Horton and daughter-in-law Kim Horton of Springfield, MO, grandchildren Curtis Horton and wife Sandra of Dallas, TX, Melina Horton Murray and husband Charles of Bolivar, MO, Bryan Horton and David Horton of Springfield, MO, Jared Horton of Madison, CT, and a New Years great-grandson Andrew.

The family would like to send a special thank you to the staff and caregivers of Integrity Home Care, CMH Hospice and Colonial Springs Care Center for their loving care during Myrons illness. Visitation will be on Sunday November 26, 2006 from 2:00 3:00 pm at Butler Funeral Home, immediately followed by a Funeral Service at 3:00pm at Butler Funeral Home in Bolivar, MO. Burial will follow at Slagle Cemetery. Friends may sign the guest book or send private condolences at www.butlerfuneralhome.com

“ Delcie,
We're sorry to hear of Myron's passing. Seems like our lives have gone way to fast. Wasn't it just a few days ago that we were in Hurley Church together?
We pray God gives you comfort and peace. He's always there in even the dark times. God bless you.
