

Nancy L. Chaney

November 13, 1924 - June 20, 2010

Nancy Lee Chaney, 85, Independence, formerly of Humansville, died Sunday, June 20, 2010 at Carmel Hills Healthcare, Independence. The daughter of David Isaac and Stella (Hicks) Sidwell, she was born in Kansas City, Missouri November 13, 1924. She and Cecil Chaney were married in Fort Scott, Kansas, February 27, 1946. They had one son, Monte. Nancy lived and worked in the Humansville area for her entire adult life in the family TV shop and in several restaurants as a waitress and cook. She had spent the last several years as a resident of Carmel Hills Healthcare in Independence. She professed that the Lord saved her at an early age and she was formerly a member of Humansville First Baptist Church until moving to the Independence area to be near her sister, Betty. Her husband, Cecil, her parents, Stella and David Sidwell, three sisters, Pearl, Josephine, and Betty, and her brother, Gordon, preceded her in death. She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Monte and Brenda Chaney, Springfield; 4 grandchildren, Faith Chaney-Grant and husband, Robert, Springfield, Monte Chaney II and wife, Angie, Zama, Japan, Matthew Chaney and wife, Wendy, Springfield and Jacob Chaney, Springfield; 4 great-grandchildren, Logan and Ethan Chaney, Zama, Japan and Dante and Elizabeth Chaney, Springfield; and several nieces and nephews. Graveside services will be at 11:00 A M, Wednesday, June 23, 2010 in Humansville Cemetery with Brother Donnie Lane officiating. Services are under the direction of Murray Funeral Home, Humansville.
