“ I've been thinking about Nancy and family a lot today. I'm thankful for the one last time I got to see her last year. And I am thankful that Ronnie made the funeral a celebration of her life and love of God. While I will miss her, I rejoice that she is with God and no longer suffers.

“ I also have great memories of our childhood and especially her laugh. While I miss her terribly, I take comfort in knowing that she is now at peace and no longer in pain.

“ My thoughts of Nancy have been racing through my mind, just remembering "us cousins". When we were children, I only got to be with them all for a week or two in the summer and then at Christmas when my family went to our grandparents in Tulsa. I have such sweet memories of those times... and I can hear Nancy's laugh. I already miss hearing from her in our weekly letters (via e-mail). We just were not ready for this, but know she is at peace and is with our family members that were waiting for her. Love and prayers for Ronnie, her girls and their families. She will be missed terribly.

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. I remember nancy well. She was always kind & friendly to me when we were at family dinners at Betty & Marions. I recall going to Gladstone to Ronnie & Nancys when Karel & i were very young. My sincere condolences to Ronnie and children.

“ I'm sorry for the loss that you will feel when you want to just talk to Nancy about something. Or get that special hug that only she could give. At such times, try to remember the joy and the great love she has now with our Heavenly Father and the loved ones that have passed on before her. She feels no pain of this Earthly existance, anymore, and we know she has had an abundance of that lately. The Love that Nancy left with everyone will live on forever

“ I am sorry for your loss. Psalm 34:18 tells us that God is near to those that are broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves. He provides us with the oppurtunity to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29, 1 Thessalonians 4:13,14)I have learned to place trust in this promise because Hebrews 6:18 tells us that 'it is impossible for God to lie'. I hope these words bring you comfort and hope.
