

Nita Charlene Holman

September 6, 1947 - January 20, 2013

Nita Charlene Holman, 65, of Bolivar passed away peacefully at home on Sunday, January 20, 2013. She was born as one of 4 children to Thomas Richard and Juanita Voyles Holman in Borger, Texas. As a long time resident of Bolivar, Nita was well known as first class server. She worked for many years at Kathy's Pasta, Norma's, and various other restaurants in Bolivar. She is well remembered for her speedy service, efficiency and friendly smile! She enjoyed her work and her customers. Nita also enjoyed painting crafts, loom-knitting and attending her grandchildren's sports activities. She was a big Morrisville Panther fan! She was preceded in death by her brother Jerry Holman. She is survived by her mother, Juanita Holman of Bolivar; son Steve Beavers and his wife Jennifer of Brighton; grandchildren Stephanie, Tyler, and Nicholas Beavers of Brighton; sisters Marsha Venditto of South Carolina, and L. June Cleveland and her husband Dennis of Bolivar as well as many loving nieces and nephews. A Remembrance Gathering for Nita Holman will be held from 2-4 PM on Saturday, January 26 at the CMH Community Building room #2. Flowers for the gathering may be sent to 4750 Scenic Dr, Bolivar or brought to the remembrance gathering on Saturday. The family is very appreciative of the whole CMH Hospice team with a special thank you to Carla Wilson. Online condolences may be submitted to www.murrayfuneralhomes.com.
