“ Norma was an ideal role model for many! She practiced what she preached on a daily basis, and lived a life of reaching out and serving. She never wanted to stop learning, and I'm sure she's still learning in glory. She'll be ready to teach us when we arrive to join her!
Many in the field of education are better for having crossed her path. She was an inspiration. I treasure many memories of her and the grace with which she lived.
