“ HOMESICK (by Mercy Me)

*You're in a better place, I've heard a thousand times
And at least a thousand times I've rejoiced for you
But the reason why I'm broken, the reason why I cry
Is how long must I wait to be with you*

*I close my eyes and I see your face
If home's where my heart is then I'm out of place
Lord, won't you give me strength to make it through somehow
I've never been more homesick than now*

*Help me Lord cause I don't understand your ways
The reason why I wonder if I'll ever know
But, even if you showed me, the hurt would be the same
Cause I'm still here so far away from home*

*In Christ, there are no goodbyes
And in Christ, there is no end
So I'll hold onto Jesus with all that I have
To see you again
To see you again*

*And I close my eyes and I see your face
If home's where my heart is then I'm out of place
Lord, won't you give me strength to make it through somehow
Won't you give me strength to make it through somehow
Won't you give me strength to make it through somehow*

I've never been more homesick than now

“ If I had to name a single quality about Norma that stands out the most, it is selflessness. The dictionary describes selflessness as, The quality of unselfish concern for the welfare of others. Norma always thought of others before herself. She hated asking for help, or being a burden, but was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. I remember her often dropping everything she was doing to help us out, even in a moments notice.

Norma loved deeply. You never had to wonder if Norma loved you, you felt it. If asked how she was doing, Norma would always give an enthusiastic great! or fantastic! and flash a heartwarming and encouraging smile. You never saw Norma down in the dumps, whining or complaining. She always had a kind word, warm smile, helping hand and positive outlook.

Although many of us have felt and experienced Normas love and tenderness, Norma was also a strong and courageous woman of God. Normas strength was never more evident than with her recent battle with cancer. Against overwhelming odds, Norma lived life abundantly, far beyond the doctors predictions. Her hope and dependence on the Lord kept her steadfast in her faith, never wavering even during the hard, pounding waves of cancers unrelenting storm.

Norma loved the Lord with all of her heart. Sharing even in her final hours, the love of the Lord with her family, and encouraging them to share that hope with others.

We miss you already Grandma Norma.

We both worked with Norma at the hospital when she worked there.
