“ Doug, as his close family called him, came into my life at age 13 when he married my sister Donna. I was instantly drawn to his kind open personality, great laugh and acceptance and patience for an inquisitive and overly energetic teenager. It is obvious to me why he made a great teacher. He loved knowledge, kids and debate. Oh how he loved to debate! Doug became another brother to me. He kindled my interest in guns and shooting sports, music with his guitar plying and a life of curiosity with his stories of his time in Bolivia in the Peace Corps. He was kind gentle man who was quick with a helping hand. He was a great loving husband to Donna and a good son to our parents. I loved him like a brother and will miss him like one. Rest in peace Doug. Love Dave.
