“ He always seemed to have more joy of the Lord than a whole gang of us Penticostals! His love of Jesus was in everything, his singing, sharing, caring--just everything! And his family-Wow-what a family!!! The love and bond showed. My prayers have been and will continue to be with Jewell and all the family, as for Norman, I think he is singing, praising, turning cartwheels and happy with his beloved Savior, he won't have time to miss the family, cause in his current place, they will be with him in a blink of an eye. No, my sorrow is for all those left here without him.

“ Norman will be greatly missed. He lived a beautiful life of service to others, ministering to the needs of people all across the land. The excitement in his eyes when the spirit of the Lord came by made it easy to see that he was living out his calling. The inspiring recitations that he delivered never seemed to fail to find a lodging place in the hearts of those sitting in the congregation. We will treasure the memories we have of Norman.

Love,

“ I always enjoyed his enthusiasm for the God, and his caring attitude about people. I loved to hear him sing. And his family was the same way. God fearing, God loving people. He will surely be missed a great deal. Love you all very much. Your Sis-N-Christ, Brenda White of Chapel Of Grace.
