“ I am truly sorry for your loss. A good way to look at this is that Pat and Kelly are up in heaven dancing an Irish dance, she will be truly missed.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you... though the miles have always separated all of us, we have always loved to hear and catch up when we would email or facebook Patty. We know this journey of the heart is private and very individual... please know that we pledge to cover your hearts when you don't even know. Lean heavily on the Lord-he cares for all of you...Always remembering that she became completely whole the minute her spirit left her earthly suit... The scripture promises that we will know and recognize her in Heaven--yeah... that is something to close your eyes and be assured of. Remember too, that everything she left you is inside of you, she is apart of you always. Love Connie Mudd Voss

“ We will of course miss a great nieghbor, but we will miss Pat! Our kids grew up together. Oh how you loved your kids and grand kids!We will miss you and Ira on the porch in the mornings. Thanks for keeping Stephanie when she ran away to your house to live because we wouldn't buy her a Lite-Brite and she could just go play with Vicki's! God Bless your family.

“ Patty, thanks for standing in as a "Grandma" to 3 rowdy boys who didn't have one. Thanks for always being happy to see us and loving us no matter what. Thanks for teaching me the importance of loving what I have instead of getting what I "think" I want. I loved you very much and will be forever grateful to have had you in my life.
