“ Goldina, Paulette, and family Paul Taylor was one of the most considerate, unselfish persons I have known. He was a good man, a wonderful friend and neighbor. He was always there if you needed help butchering, transportation for dr. visits, or to borrow Jubilee for a granddaughter's visit. Finally he was a good husband, father and grandfather. He will be missed here on earth, but Lois, family and friends will recognize him (in his new bibs)and be happy to see him. May we all pattern our own lives after the example Paul set. May we too be so loving and kind to everyone around us each day. The May family
