“ I am thinking of all of you girls and know today will be a very hard day.I wanted to try to be there but will try to see you soon. My parents and your parents spent many happy times together over the years. I miss my parents everyday and I know you will too but you have so many happy memories, those are the important thins that will always bring you laughter and smiles and yes a few tears but will be happy tears My prayers are for you and your families today. Love you Pam (Riley) Myers

“ I just heard about Uncle Price. I am so sorry. I can still remember spending the summers with all of you and Aunt Norma--going to Branson and to the zoo. Uncle Price's driving always made me car sick because he still drove like a milkman!(speed up, slow down). I am going to try to make it Monday. Thinking of you all.
