“ I want you to know that you are in my prayers. I have fond memories of Ralph and Jamie from my days as High School Principal at Humansville. When I think of those days, I smile with good memories of your family. God bless and keep you in this time of sorrow.

“ It has been a long since I ran into Ralph going to work, but as usual he was his friendly outgoing self. I know right now it is hard to believe that it will get better or easier, but it will with time, because there are people who care about that will always be there when you need them. AftEr reading his obituary, it is so easy to see that you had a lot there to be proud of. So on those days when things seem hard to bear, just look up and you will know that he will be looking down on you with his usual smiling face, saying... hey guys, it will be OKAY... And I love YOU ALL..
