

Retha "Rosalie" Craig

November 8, 1934 - December 22, 2020

Reatha Rosalie (Robertson ) Craig 86 went to heaven to join her husband Raymond Craig of 69 years of marriage. Born 11/8/1934 to George And Myrtle Robertson . Rosalie was 1 of 5 sisters

Rosalie loved her family at First Baptist Church of Morrisville. She made handmade gifts and gave them to her church friends. Rosalie loved to sing, and even wrote and recorded some gospel songs. She was always humming a gospel tune. Rosalie learned to paint pictures as a hobby after she retired, and loved to paint the log cabin that she grew up in .

In 1975, Rosalie went to school and became an LPN, working in several nursing homes and even became Nursing Home Administrator in Stover, Mo & Humansville, Mo.

Being an Air force wife meant moving around a lot, but Rosalie always made it a loving home. Rosalie was a very loving mother, wife, and friend who would help anyone she could, especially the elderly. Rosalie had a great love for her family, and always put them first and foremost.

Rosalie is preceded in death by her husband Raymond, her children, Christina Ann Craig, son, Ronald Ray Craig, parents, George and Myrtle Roberson, sisters, Daisy Gannaway, Grace Smart, Jo Richardson, Georgie Perry and Great-Great grandson Jaxon Allen.

She is survived by her Son Raymond Timothy (Tim) Craig and significant other Pamala Holt, grandkids; Rachel & Kendall Chitwood, Great Grandsons Wyatt & Noah Chitwood, Lebanon Mo, Timothy Craig Springfield Mo, Great Grand Kids, Theresa & Ray Booker, Great-Great Grandson, Liam Booker, Saint Mary's, Kansas, Donovan & Jacquelyn Allen, Oliver Allen, Tulsa Ok, Skylor Morse, Kountze, Texas, Brittney Craig, Florence, South Carolina, and Anthony of Springfield, Mo.
