“ My family and I only got to know Richard for a short period of time, but we all enjoyed the opportunity and found that he was a fine man. My Mom, Jan, was in Parkview with him and we sat at the same table for meals in the cafeteria. We enjoyed many discussions, and felt that he was an interesting, unique, and special individual. We know that he will be missed and our deepest condolences go out to Susan, family, and friends.

Sincerely,

“ I haven't seen “Ricky” in 56 years (since we graduated high school in Booneville, Arkansas) but if he was as fine a father and husband as he was a young friend those many years ago, he was was great and your loss is profound. For some reason last week, I happened to come across my high school yearbook and found myself wondering where my good friend was and how he was doing. Please know that I have prayed for your family today—prayers of gratitude for my friend and prayers of grace and strength for your family. —Dean Dickens
