

Robert Edward Cooper

December 18, 1916 - September 7, 2015

Robert Edward Cooper was born December 18, 1916 at Cliquot, Missouri to John (Coody) Cooper and Neoma Stephenson Cooper. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters Alma Adcock, Minta Bays, and Jewell Cooper and brothers Howard Cooper, Wayne Cooper, Warren Cooper and nephew Lyndon Bays. He is survived by sister-in-law Vera, Alvin's wife, nephews Ival Adcock, Irwin Adcock, Weldon Adcock, Jim Cooper, Monty Cooper and Jerry Cooper; nieces Marvella Adcock, Betty Jean Rhodes, Marilyn Long, Janice Conner, Nancy Bruner, Vicki Dickerson and their families. Robert lived in northern Polk County his entire lifetime but for a short time as a child in Vista, Missouri. He lived at the family farm near Flemington for many years. He and brothers Wayne and Howard and their sister Jewell stayed with their father after their mothers' death at an early age. Robert was the cook, housekeeper and also the mechanic. He took much pride in his ability to fix vehicles and farm equipment. After the death of their father and Jewell moving to Bolivar, the 3 brothers lived at the family farm. He was so dedicated to weekly trips to help Jewell with errands and grocery shopping until her death. After he was no longer driving, neighbor Bobby Chaney and niece Nancy Bruner saw to his needs and checked on him as he lived alone for many years until November of 2011 when he became a resident of citizens Memorial Healthcare Facility after a hip fracture where he lived until his death on September 7, 2015. Gravesite funeral services will be held 10:30 AM Thursday, September 10, 2015 at the Flemington Cemetery officiated by Rev. Janice Beadleston. Online
