

Robert J. Sarlitto

December 30, 1931 - January 23, 2009

Robert J. (Bob) Sarlitto, age 77, died in his sleep from complications of diabetes and heart disease at Citizens Memorial Hospital-CF on Friday, January 23, 2008. Bob enjoyed computers, mechanics and woodworking. He was also an avid history buff. He was born December 30, 1931, in Joliet, Illinois to the late Paul and Martha Sarlitto (Szarletta). After graduating from high school, he joined the United States Navy. He served in the Korean War and thereafter during peacetime. After an honorable and proud service to his country, Bob stayed in Southern California, where he was married and had two children. He eventually settled in his beloved City of Bolivar where he started his own business of Bob's Electric, which he enjoyed tremendously. He transitioned to the City of Bolivar working for the cemetery services and retired in 1997. His parents, and a brother, Gilbert Sarlitto, preceded him in death. Bob is survived by his two children, son, Mark and wife, Andrea of Florida and daughter Teresa and partner, Pam, of California. He has two grandchildren, Jessica Brown and Michelle Dail, and three great-granddaughters, Julia and Jasmine Brown and Delilah Dail. He leaves behind many years of treasured friendships with Patricia and Chris Schneider and their family and Jack Glendenning of Polk County Electric, his family, and Robert, the dog (who is named after our beloved Bob). Graveside services will be held at 11:00 AM Tuesday, January 27, 2009 at Greenwood Cemetery with Chaplain James Friend officiating. Military rites will be by Amvets Post #114 Honor Guard. Visitation will be Monday from 5:00 to 6:00 pm at Murray

Funeral Home, Bolivar.
