

Rose A. Englam

July 30, 1920 - February 19, 2009

Mrs. Rose Ann Englam, 88, Springfield, formerly of Bolivar, died Thursday, February 19, 2009 in Citizens Memorial Healthcare Facility. The daughter of Frank and Rose A. Lavicka, she was born July 30, 1920 at Berwyn, Illinois. She and Herman W. Englam were married September 29, 1945. She was employed for 9 years by the telephone company and was a homemaker. She attended Bolivar First Baptist Church for 19 years and Brighton Baptist Church for 1 1/2 years before moving to Springfield. Her parents and 2 brothers, Frank Lavicka, Jr. and Charles Lavicka, preceded her in death. Survivors include her husband, Herman, of the home; 3 children and their spouses, Glen and Ruth Englam, Highland Park, IL, Paul Englam, Addison, IL and Sue and Timothy Dalzell, Richardson, TX; 4 grandchildren, Matthew Dalzell, Nathaniel Dalzell, David Englam and Rachel Englam. Funeral services will be at 11:00 AM Saturday, February 21, 2009 in Murray Funeral Home, Bolivar with Rev. George Colbert officiating. Pallbearers will be Ron Myers, Gene McClaren, Joe Grant, Matthew Dalzell, Nathaniel Dalzell and Wesley Gott. Music will be by George and Susan Baker. Interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery. Visitation will be Saturday from 10:00 AM to 11:00 AM.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Rose A. Engram

October 05, 2023 at 05:18 AM

“ Rose A. Engram

January 26, 2023 at 04:15 PM

“ Our sympathy goes out to you and your family. Hugh and Twila

Hugh and Twila Smith - February 25, 2009 at 12:00 AM